

TV Trivia

- Category: Review (great as an icebreaker for a follow up session)
- Goal: Have fun reviewing how to identify the behaviors in different styles.
- Materials: Blank, posted flipcharts for each team. If time, create template on flip charts, see below.

SHOW NAME: _____ (insert show/movie name)
(List) Characters	(List) Behaviors	(Then determine) Style(s)
1.
2.
3.
4.

Preparation: Individuals have basic knowledge of the behavior characteristics of each communication style. Create one sample for group. See below.

Grouping: Fun to do in teams.

Timing: 10 to 15 Minutes total.

Assignment: Have each team write the answers to the TV Show or movie's list of characters with the corresponding styles and behaviors. All participants within a group must know the show. (Check groups work during process. Help them if stuck or wrong.)

Debrief: Groups then cover the styles and behaviors they wrote on their flipchart. And then each group leader shares TV Show and characters names and then asks the large group to determine what behavior and style(s) is each character.

Note: This learning activity also provides great insight into how different generations view life.
